for Personal Supports

What can we do for you?

Windsor Essex Brokerage for Personal Supports, often called 'Brokerage', is in Windsor and Essex County for people who have a developmental disability.

It is a support in our community for people who are looking for a different way to work toward their life goals.

Planning is an important part of 'Brokerage'.

Through planning you can determine:

- Your dreams and how you want to live your life.
- The type of supports and services you want and will need in order to work towards achieving your dreams.
- How you plan to access the services outlined in your plan.
- Supports and services from the widest range of options that anyone in your community could access.

People and families have found Brokerage to be a key place to get good information.

Information that is personalized and accurate can help you and your family to:

- Encourage involvement.
- Explore service and support options such as:
 - ➔ housing
 - ➔ employment
 - ➔ interests
 - ➔ community involvement.
- Review the options of portable and flexible support dollars.
- Assist with the formal and informal arrangements of contracting services with community agencies when requested.
- Assist with the renegotiation of support contracts at any time.
- Mediate and negotiate.
- Follow your unique path.

Windsor Essex Brokerage
